1 Front Row Seat at Saturday Night with Shannon
7pm 16th August

This gives you entry into Shannon’s first private seminar on her website but because you have a front row seat, you’re getting VIP treatment – complete with a complimentary yearly subscription to Shannon’s Newsletter – I had to chain her to the chair for this so make sure you bring your most difficult floor stain (especially vinyl and lino)

You can log in via your computer (or if you’re on the go or can’t get home in time, you can use your phone to login)
